

POLITICS - EXERCISES

Ćwiczenie 1.

I. W zdaniach A i B przyporządkuj podane wyrazy do odpowiednich miejsc.

A. What type of government does each of these countries have?

Poland                      the United Kingdom                      The United States

1. ....is a constitutional monarchy.
2. ....is a republic.
3. ....is a federal republic.

B. What people and institutions belong to each of the branches of power?

Government	MPs	senators
Judge	parliament	Supreme Court
Ministers	prime minister	tribunal

The executive branch
The judicial branch
The legislative branch

Ćwiczenie 2.

Uzupełnij podanymi wyrazami zdania w części A i B.

A.      candidate                      leader                      opposition                      run                      term
             Election                      majority                      political                      spokesperson                      vote

1. In Poland president is elected for a five year.....
2. Whi.....did you.....for the last presidential .....?
3. The.....of the larges..... party in Parliament has appointed a new.....to communicate with the media.
4. The.....party is already preparing to take over power next year.
5. Some of my neighbours keep telling me to.....for Parliament.
6. The latest government decisions did not gain a.....in the Parliament.

B.      ambassadors                      councillors                      flag                      town council      national anthem embassy                      mayor                      trade unions

1. The Polish.....has only two colours, white and red.
2. The Polish.....was written by Józef Wybicki more than two hundred years ago.
3. As a member of the organization, I met sever....., one ex-prime minister, and two presidents at the meeting in the British.....last week.
4. If Cracow is your home town, you should the name of the .....of Cracow.
5. In Poland.....have a very strong position in economic and political life.